These features ensure both comfort and high-quality living. Villamartin, a thriving residential hub on the southern Costa Blanca, has flourished over the past decade, evolving into a vibrant multicultural community. Renowned for its proximity to world-class golf courses like Las Ramblas, Las Colinas, Campoamor, and the prestigious Villamartin Golf Club (host of the 1994 Mediterranean Open), this area offers a dynamic lifestyle for golf lovers and residents alike. Just a short drive away, you'll find the Zenia Boulevard shopping center. For those who enjoy the beach, Villamartin is conveniently close to the pristine shores of Playa Flamenca and La Zenia. Additionally, Playa Flamenca hosts a vibrant weekly market where you can discover fresh local produce and artisan goods. Villamartin's heart is undoubtedly its picturesque Plaza, nestled near the golf course. It's filled with shops, banks, supermarkets, bars, and restaurants, making it a perfect spot for both daily life and leisure. The area is well-connected, with regular bus services to nearby coastal towns like Guardamar Del Segura and Torrevieja. Families will appreciate the proximity to El Limonar International School, which offers bilingual education in both English and Spanish, making it an ideal choice for those with children. With its enviable location near two international airports (Alicante, just 45 minutes away, and San Javier, 20 minutes), Villamartin is a prime destination for both holidaymakers and permanent residents seeking a perfect blend of relaxation and convenience.
