Guardamar del Segura Guardamar del Segura is a coastal town on the Costa Blanca located 35 km south of Alicante. The municipality boasts a total of 11 km of fine, warm sandy beaches. Guardamar is best known for its sand dunes, which are located within a coastal protection and conservation area. The pine forest north of the town center covers 800 hectares, home to a wide variety of plant species such as pines, palm trees, and cypresses. It is also known for its traditional shopping and a wide and varied gastronomic offering. You can also go hiking and cycling in the pine forest, located directly opposite the residential complex. An ideal location close to Alicante Airport and all the attractions the Costa Blanca has to offer.
